BASE-BUILDING ORGANIZER (JOBS)

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION:

Community Voices Heard (CVH) is a member-led multi-racial organization, principally women of color and low-income families in New York State that builds power to secure social, economic and racial justice for all. Founded in 1994 by welfare recipients in New York City working to fight unjust welfare policies, we have since expanded our organization to include working on multiple issues throughout New York State. Our core organizing issues include fighting for a just social safety net, good jobs and access to them, truly affordable housing, sustainable and resilient communities, and a participatory democracy.

For more information please check out our web page at: www.cvhaction.org.

BACKGROUND ON POSITION:

Community Voices Heard is seeking an experienced organizer for our Jobs/Workforce campaign. Successful applicants will have experience engaging in the relational organizing model. Candidates must be experienced in building strong teams of members through leadership development.

Candidates will be particularly appealing to us if they also have:

- Keen analytical skills.
- Experience and ability to work/organize across racial and cultural lines.
